Quality and Productivity Commission Leadership Conference 2019

The County of Los Angeles Chief Executive Office, Quality and Productivity Commission, and the Board of Supervisors will serve as hosts for the 17th Annual County Leadership Conference, scheduled for Wednesday, June 5, 2019, 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Music Center. This year's theme is "Government in Motion: The Evolving County Workplace", which is designed to explore the future of work in Los Angeles County (County). The County, like other employers, face the advent of artificial intelligence and automation in the workplace, among the workforce, and in the delivery of services. Presentations will range from coworking spaces, mobility, alternative locations, "Preparing our People: AI + Workforce of the Future," and "Workplace Trends." The annual Leadership Conference is attended by County Supervisors, Commissioners, Department Directors, Executive staff and Productivity Managers.
